

History Homework

Students in year 10 will be studying the Russian Revolution during the Autumn term. They must read around the subject and take part in independent research using the internet. Students will be given details on what to read and how to research in class. In addition to this individual homework assignments will be set for individual classes based upon the needs of the students. Please check students planner for details.